Build stronger relationships with branded video!

The SalesMail app lets you send personalized and branded video messages via email, text message, or your other favorite messaging apps.

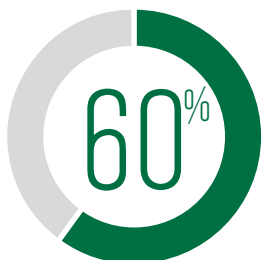

Our SaaS solution is built for professionals in senior care, real estate, recruiting, staffing, and everywhere great relationships are essential for generating better business outcomes.

While your competitors are sending boring emails, leaving impersonal voicemails, and wondering why they can't connect, you'll be using video to build trust and make a face-to-face connection!

Benefits Include

- Instantly build trust
- Establish deeper connections with prospects
- Build stronger relationships with customers
- Differentiate yourself from competitors
- Improve open and clickthrough rates
- Generate more conversions
- Expedite the sales cycle
- Get face-to-face when you can't be there in person
